

BAW LONIC COMPANY APPLY TO RIGHT

Most Distinguished in Service Will Give 4-Day Demonstration.

WILL LIVE IN TENTS
Trucks Were Delayed by Bad Roads Near Harrisburg.

The Twelfth Balloon Company, Motor Corps, is making a demonstration in Columbia tonight to give a four-day demonstration. The trucks which carry the balloons, were held up at this afternoon near Harrisburg by bad roads due to the recent rains. Capt. A. McKinley, company commander, arrived here in his motor car last night.

The men in the organization will live in pup tents the four days they spend in Columbia on the vacant lot just to the right of the Park Hotel Company. The exhibitions will also be given on this lot.

The first exhibition was in the St. Michel and Aronne drives and received five companies. The second exhibition was held at the drive, and the wing, composed of four companies, lost an entire balloon, and the wing, composed of two men from the Twelfth Company were taken prisoners, but were recovered. The company returned to the United States three months ago.

There are at present fifty-three men in the organization. Its authorized strength is 200 men. The company averages an establishment of 200 men some time.
