

OH, OH, OH, OH, OH COLORADO HOUSE

Elks' Tunesful Music Play Includes Music From Broadway Shows.

LEADS WELL TAKEN

Merit of Production Due to Number of Beautiful Girls in Cast.

The tired business man and the overworked student of Columbia, besides several hundred other Columbian boys who come to neither category, will find a rest treat at the Hall Theater tonight and tomorrow night. "Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh," given under the auspices of the local Elks Lodge for the benefit of the Elks Christmas fund, and other charity funds, began last night a three-night run that promises to attract attention from the thousands called forth for anything in the amateur dramatic line staged in Columbia during the season, "I Found a Dollar Bill."

The very useful musical show, a popular play that includes music from the best Broadway shows of the three seasons, with some Columbia packed theater last night. Frequent demands for encores of the dancing and music numbers were heard from the audience's opinion of the merit of the show. Last night's performance did not end smoothly, but the girls maintaining one ought to be made for the short time the cast has had for preparation, at times the lines came haltingly and the handling of the stage property was not so good as it should have been. The orchestra took these defects with good nature.

Business in Cast and Shows.
The leads in "Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh," their roles well, almost without exception. The casting of the production, the feature that is responsible for its unqualified success, is the music. The songs are new and catchy and choros. No errors in lines or dancing or slips in stage business, and the orchestra took these defects with good nature.

The leading roles, Clady and the girls. She is fitted by Miss Ruth Burns and Harry Stevens. Miss Burns has a good soprano voice and her singing of "Give Me All of You" is one of the highlights in the show. In the first part Miss Edith Brown, as Blanche Blondin of the Pollies, is a real beauty. Her singing of "A Dove Coat for Two" evoked a chorus of applause. In the comic roles were Harry Stevens, with "The Kiss," and Charles Lowery, a blackface comedian of unusual ability for an amateur. The comedies with the audience were Miss Ruth Burns as the singer and Miss Martha Spawbe as the comedienne. ## LEADERS WAIT RETURN OF STRIKERS

Officials Think Thousands Will Not Resume Work.

CONFERENCE FRIDAY

European and South Ameri- can Countries Are Affected.

By J. L. O'SULLIVAN
(Indian Press Staff Correspondent)
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 12.—Coal miners on strike since November 1 were expected, by officials of the United Mine Workers, to be back at their work again today.

The normal production of coal, union leaders here believe, will not be restored until the conference to be held at Washington today. Union leaders who have been in session here since Monday, dispersed today.

Representatives of the bituminous districts will gather next Friday in Washington in response to the invitation of William B. Wilson, secretary of labor.

Attorneys of the United Mine Workers today approved the ruling of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals which will be filed within the next few days according to Attorney Warr.

The appeal will contend that the right to work in mines is a matter of public interest and that the right to work in mines is a matter of public interest.

Will Hold Conference Friday.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Reports on the number of miners returning to work were anxiously awaited by officials of the United Mine Workers today. It is believed the men will resume work as soon as the ratification of the strike call is made by the conference Friday.
