

THE ROYAL TOUR IN LANCASHIRE: THE KING IN THE COUNTY PALATINE.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY ELLIS FERRELL, TOPICAL, CENTRAL STAFF, AND NEWSPAPER ILLUSTRATIONS.

1. PASSING THE PRISON: THE KING AND QUEEN DRIVING THROUGH WARRINGTON WITH THEIR HORSE, THE EARL OF DERBY.
2. WHEN THE CLERGY OF THE TENANTS ON LORD DUNBY'S ESTATE WELCOMED THEIR MAJESTY, AND MISS AGNES MADDENWRIGHT PRESENTED THE QUEEN WITH A BOUNTIFUL DISCUSSION OF TENANTS AT KNOWSLEY HALL.
3. OPENING THE FIRST SECTION OF THE NEW WASHINGTON BRIDGE: THE KING PRESSING THE ELECTRIC BUTTON ON A TRAIN IN FRONT OF THE BRIDGE HALL.

The King and Queen began their visit to his Majesty's Duchy of the County Palatine of Lancashire on July 2. On their arrival at Aspley Station, they were welcomed by their host and hostess, the Earl and Countess of Derby, and they then drove through Warrington, where they were received with much enthusiasm. On a day in front of the Town Hall, the King, pressing a button, opened the first section of the new

4. PASSING TEN THOUSAND CHERKING SCHOOL CHILDREN BY THE OPEN HALL: THE KING AND QUEEN TALKING TO SOAP MAKERS AT WERRER, CROSSLANDS.
5. THE BRIDGE WHICH WAS REVEALED BY THE PRESSING OF AN ELECTRIC BUTTON BY THE KING: THE HORSEY ACROSS THE NORTH END OF THE NEW WASHINGTON BRIDGE BEFORE THE OPENING.

Warrington Bridge. Their Majesties then visited Messrs. Crossfield's Soap Works, and drove west on to Widnes, that great centre of the chemical trade. Finally, they drove on to Knowsley Hall. At the entrance to this they were welcomed by Mr. Edward Doshall, the oldest of Lord Derby's tenants, and received an address of welcome from the Lancashire County Council, whose Chairman, Mr. W. Scott Barrett, the King knighted.