

MORE PAY FOR POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN HERE

Columbia Council Advances Firemen's Demands in Two Departments of the City.

By UNANIMOUS VOTE Fire Chief Instructed to Fill Two Vacancies—Motors Parked to Near Water Plugs.

Columbia firemen and policemen were granted a raise in salaries by the city council at its latest meeting.

The places of J. C. Walden and Noah Park, the two firemen who recently quit, were filled by the council.

It was a month ago that the police commission reported that the commission was authorized to raise the pay of all policemen.
