

Table with multiple columns containing data for various railroad lines, including names, dates, and financial figures. The table is organized into sections by state or region, such as 'Lake Superior and Mississippi', 'Pennsylvania', 'Ohio', etc. Each entry includes a line number, a date, the name of the railroad, and several columns of numerical data representing financial and operational statistics.